LOST ON THE DESERT.

Terrible Journey of a Band of Chinese.

Wandering for Days Without Water—One Dies of Thirst.

Suicide of an Eastern Man Who Swindled Lucky Baldwin.

Closing Session of the Native Sons—Election of Officers—Pardon for an Aged Convict—Other Coast News.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1. —[By the Associated Press.] The Chronicle's San Diego special says: A morning paper states that it has just come to light that a party of Chinese who last week attempted to smuggle themselves into the United States from Lower California got lost on one of the deserts, and had a terrible experience, one of the party dying of thirst and exposure. They found the frontier so closely guarded that they stole to the eastward and got into the desert. Here they got lost and wandered aimlessly around for several days, suffering greatly.

One of the Mongolians was a lad of some 14 years. He gave out under the terrible suffering and became crazy. In his ravings he imagined that the blistering sands were limpid water, and eagerly filled his parched mouth with the burning particles. This only added to his sufferings and he lay down to die, his companions being in too pitiful a condition to render him any assistance. They heaped a pile of sand upon him and left him while they continued their aimless wanderings.

They at last reached the railroad minus everything they had attempted to bring into the county except the clothing upon their backs. They had thrown away the bundles containing a large quantity of opium.

THE NATIVE SONS.

Closing Session at Chico—Election of Officers.

CHICO, May 1.—[By the Associated Press.] Upon assembling today the Grand Parlor adopted resolutions to the memory of the late Col. J. M. Donahue.

The committee on supervision reported upon the payment of sick benefits and funeral expenses.

The plan for elections of officers for one year instead of six months was re-

The election of officers was a special order. Dorn, Garoutte and Steinbach were the tellers. W. H. Miller was elected Grand President; Robert M. Fitzgerald, Grand Vice-President; Henry Lunstedt, Secretary; Henry S. Martin, Treasurer.

Recess was then taken.

Upon reassembling this afternoon the proceedings commenced by the nomination of W. Walter Greer for the office of Grand Lecturer. Charles M. Belshaw of Antioch was nominated by Past President Greeley and seconded by C. B. Webster. T. C. Hocking of Grass Valley was nominated by Grand Orator Tuttle.

The first ballot resulted: Greer, 79; Belshaw, 77; Hocking, 25. No choice. T. C. Hocking withdrew.

The second ballot resulted: Greer, 100; Belshaw, 85. On motion of Belshaw the election of Greer was made unanimous.

At the evening session the following Grand Trustees were elected: J. S. Sproule, J. T. Grieny, G. A. McColoy, R. B. Hoglan, E. J. Gregory, D. E. Morgan and W. H. Thorney.

The Golden West was made the official organ of the order.

It was decided to pay the Grand Secretary's assistant $80 a month and the Grand Secretary $1200 a year.

A proposition to allow the Grand President $5000 a year was lost.

C. L. Tilden was elected Grand Marshal; W. Dinkelspiel, Grand Inside Sentinel; Bertrand Slaine, Grand Outside Sentinel.

The Grand Parlor adjourned sine die and attended a banquet given by the Chico parlor.

A SWINDLER'S SUICIDE

Shot Himself Rather Than Go to Prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—[By the Associated Press.] Three months ago a man calling himself R. B. Schwartzkopf, and claiming to represent the New York Mutual Life Insurance Company, registered at the Baldwin Hotel in this city. He led a fast life and spent money freely. E. J. Baldwin advanced him $1400, and M. B. Curtis, the actor, $250, on drafts on the National Bank of Deposit of New York. The bank refused to honor the drafts, and today Baldwin notified the police. Officers went to the hotel and found Schwartzkopf in a room with Curtis. The latter left, and the officers followed him. When they returned they found that Schwartzkopf had shot himself through the left temple, dying instantly. On his person was found a card, giving his address as 120 Broadway, New York.

PARDONED.

An Aged Convict Released from San Quentin.

SACRAMENTO, May 1.—[By the Associated Press.] The Governor today granted a pardon to A. P. Gibson, who was sent from Shasta county in 1878 to San Quentin Prison to serve a life sentence for the murder of a stockman named Schroeler. Convicted of complicity in the same crime were two men named Hilbrant and Tom Gibson. The latter was pardoned by Gov. Perkins, and Hilbrant by Gov. Stoneman. Hilbrant made affidavit that he swore falsely when he stated that A. P. Gibson was implicated in the crime. Tom Gibson also swore afterward that A. P. Gibson had nothing to do with the murder. The pardoned man is about 70 years of age.

BALFOUR'S BILL.

ANOTHER IRISH DEBATE IN THE COMMONS.

Sexton Denounces It as a Betrayal of the Country—The Tory Majority Again Carries Its Point.

By Telegraph to The Times.

LONDON, May 1.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] The debate on the Land Purchase Bill was resumed in the Commons this evening by Balfour, Chief Secretary for Ireland, who made a lengthy speech. He said the attacks on the measure, though violent in form, were hesitating in substance. He criticised Gladstone's, Harcourt's and Parnell's objections. He approved Parnell's proposal in favor of fining down rents, provided the scheme could be distinctly subordinated to the main scheme for establishing peasant owners, and that tenants whose rents were fined down be permanent Irish residents. Members had been rich in projects for dealing with the property of landlords, but could they point to a single bill really dealing with the vital difficulties in the congested districts. [Cheers.] The government dealt with the difficulty of congestion in good faith. Plans should have been met by the opposition in a fair spirit.

Referring to Chamberlain's idea that the local authorities ought to be given regulative powers over contracts under the bill, Balfour admitted that if Ireland was in a normal condition it would be desirable to associate county councils in the great work in which the Imperial Parliament of England was engaged, but was Ireland in a normal condition? [Parnellite cheers.] The local authorities in many parts of Ireland worked as much on political lines as the Irish members did. If it suited them to balk and misuse the efforts of the national government and abuse its liberality, could they be depended upon to carry out the design of Parliament? Regarding the endangering of British credit, he contended that the measure obviated all risks. In concluding he urged that the bill had special merits. Taken as a whole, the bill was a great boon to Ireland, such as she never could confer upon herself and never could get except from the party now in power. ["Hear! hear!"] If the opposition would forget the political contest and ask themselves whether they were likely to find the scheme materially better, they would aid in the great work which the government, without party purpose, had taken in hand. [Cheers.]

Sexton (Nationalist) said the bill was a landlord measure, designed to sell unsaleable land. It was a betrayal of the country. ["Hear! hear!"] He warned the government that the class of tenants purchasing under the bill would default in payment even, the probable result being a general strike against the exactions of the local authorities.

The Land Purchase Bill passed its second reading by 348 to 268.

Plundered a Capitalist.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Rolland H. Ellis, private secretary of a wealthy capitalist, A. H. Loeb, was arrested tonight, together with Attorneys C. N. Durand and Hollis Chase, the three being charged with defrauding Loeb of real estate valued at $80,000. Ellis enjoyed the full confidence of Loeb, and some time ago, for business reasons, the capitalist placed a tract of land in his hands to be held in trust. Loeb charges Durand and Chase conspired with Ellis to make away with the property. The first intimation he had of anything being wrong was a notice of sale of the property in the papers today for $10,000. Ellis, it is said, made a full confession.

Death of a Noted Divine.

JACKSONVILLE (Ill.), May 1.—Rev. William Barnes, who preached the funeral sermon of Daniel Webster, died this morning. He was one of the most noted Presbyterian divines in the country. Mr. Barnes was a Harvard graduate in the same class with Charles Sumner and Edward Everett. During the last thirty-five years he has lived in the West, most of the time in Jacksonville. Judge Barnes of the Arizona Supreme Court, under Cleveland, is his son.

Labor Day in the United States.

Immense Parades at Chicago and Other Large Eastern Cities.

But No Outbreak or Disturbance in Any Place.

New York Socialists Wave the Red Flag, but Attempt Nothing Further—Strikes Multiplying All Over the Land.

By Telegraph to The Times.

CHICAGO, May 1. —[By the Associated Press.] May day, with its demonstrations by organized labor in behalf of the eight-hour work day, has come and gone, and the predictions of riot and bloodshed and almost universal strikes have not been realized. Labor, indeed, was in a great measure suspended, but those who dropped their tools for the day did not do so for the purpose of taking up sticks and paving-stones and indulging in riotous demonstrations. Thousands of them quit work for the day to march in the great parade, and many thousands made it a holiday. It was an orderly, good-natured crowd, and an orderly parade. The marching line was about four miles long. It occupied two hours in passing a given a point, and the number of men in line is estimated at about thirty thousand.

The carpenters who have been placed by the American Federation of Labor in the van of the eight-hour movement led the demonstration. They had about six thousand men, including three assemblies of Knights of Labor. They were followed by 3000 stone-masons and brick-layers. Then came delegations from the unions of printers, metal-workers and molders. These were followed by a dozen German turner societies, forming the second division.

Next marched the furniture-workers, cabinet-makers, carriage and wagon-builders, cigar-makers, cloak-makers, boiler-makers, rattan-workers, and harness-makers. Many of the trades escorted in their ranks gaudily-decorated floats, on which were realistic representations of members of the crafts pursuing their daily occupations. There were brick-layers building a miniature house, boiler-makers pounding with a frightful noise, coopers working on huge casks; carpenters, stone-cutters and many similar exhibitions. One feature of the procession was the enormous number of banners and mottoes carried. Among the many mottoes were the following: "Arbitration Is Our Motto; Down with Monopoly." "No Carpenters—No Houses." "Eight Hours and Arbitration Is a Just Demand." "We Live by Labor, Not by War." "When Arbitration Is Compulsory Strikes Will Cease." "Child Labor Should Not Be on Bench or in Shop, but in School." "Eight Hours for Work, Eight Hours for Sleep and Eight Hours to Do What We Will."

The line of march was crowded with people, who cheered marchers and mottoes. After parading through some of the principal streets of the West Side they marched over to the South Side and to Lake Front Park, where they listened to addresses from several stands.

The old Master Carpenter Association conference is to be held tomorrow. The Restaurant Waiters' Union has made a demand for shorter hours and a change in the present system of charging for breakages. If they are refused a strike will probably occur on Saturday.

THE RED FLAG WAVED.

New York's Demonstration Run by Socialists.

NEW YORK, May 1.—[By the Associated Press.] Up to 10 o'clock this morning there were few, if any signs of the inauguration of the eight-hour movement in this city. At the labor headquarters all was quiet. At the down-town buildings where the carpenters are employed the men were all working.

They appeared to be waiting for instructions from the executive committee concerning action next Monday, when the carpenters inaugurate the struggle. Interest centered in the parade and demonstration at Union Square this evening.

The New York city end of the world-wide demonstration tonight was not a great success as far as the numbers who paraded and attended the Union Square meeting are concerned. Probably not more than two thousand persons were at the speakers' stand at one time. In the procession that preceded there were about five thousand paraders. Rain partly excused this apparent want of enthusiasm. The meeting was under the auspices of the Socialist Labor party. Fear that their might be some trouble had induced the police to make very careful preparations, but they were not called upon to exhibit themselves.

The resolutions adopted recited that the eight-hour demand is only a temporary relief from capitalism. Nothing but socialism will solve the labor question. They conclude:

Resolved, that a demand be made that the hours of labor be decreed by statute; that in the struggle the ultimate object, the abolition of the wage system, be not lost sight of.

There were three speakers' stands. The principal speaker was Sergius E. Schevitch. He said the meeting was the beginning of the end; that the end would not come until they had the earth and the fulness thereof.

He concluded by asking all to be true to the red flag. There were 18 of these red flags displayed upon the stand, but among all the banners and transparencies only two United States flags were seen, and one of those had a huge skull and cross-bones painted on it. The other flag had a yellow cross beneath the stars.

The impending strike among the members of the carpenters' union has been avoided. The bosses announced this morning that they would agree to the terms of the men, and that eight hours should constitute a day's work. The men are all at work and there is great rejoicing among the different trades.

IN PENNSYLVANIA.

A Number of Strikes in Labor Centers.

PITTSBURGH, May 1.—[By the Associated Press.] Labor day in Pittsburgh was uneventful. Peace and harmony prevailed in all branches of business save in the cornice and tin works industry. Three hundred tinners went out this morning for an advance of 25 cents per day, and seven firms have already granted the demand. It is thought the strike will be over by Saturday.

Throughout Western Pennsylvania, however, a number of strikes were reported today. At Johnstown, Scottdale, Jeannette, Greensburg and Braddock the carpenters and joiners came out for eight hours' work or an increase in wages. The demands have not been granted and building operations have been practically suspended in these towns.

At McKeesport there was a monster demonstration tonight under the auspices of the Carpenters' Union, in which several thousand workmen, representing all branches of trade, participated.

In the Smithton mining district the strike situation is unchanged. Both sides are firm, and a settlement seems far off.

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—The carpenters struck this morning. They demand the eight-hour day at 35 cents an hour. The present rate is 30 cents. A number of bosses, including John Wanamaker, who employ 500 men in the aggregate, have conceded the demands of their men. It is estimated that 3000 men are out, including some non-union men. Everything is quiet.

Six master carpenters, employing 200 hands, after holding out until noon, conceded the demands of the men as individuals, but will not recognize the union.

AT LOUISVILLE.

A Large Procession Followed by Speeches.

LOUISVILLE, (Ky.), May 1.—[By the Associated Press.] Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived here today. In an interview he said the European governments are uniting to resist the eight-hour movement. They could not prevent it, though they might postpone it. The labor of the world was now working for that single object, and would attain it if it should take 10 years.

In the May day parade today the number of workmen in line is placed at from five to seven thousand. The weather was fine, and there was a large turnout of workingmen's [illegible], making the number assembled at National Park for the exercises ten thousand. THE COURTS.

[illegible] IS A SENSATIONAL SUIT FILED YESTERDAY.

Mrs. Dolores Jackson Asks to Have Her Marriage Annulled, on the Ground that Her Husband Has Another Wife Living—Redondo Railway Condemnation Suits Decided—Fanny Case Before Judge Ross—Court Notes.

A sensational suit was begun yesterday by Mrs. Dolores C. Jackson against her husband, John Eugene Jackson. She filed a complaint against him asking for the annullment of her marriage with him on the extraordinary ground that he has already another wife living, from whom he has not been divorced.

Mrs. Jackson is a member of the Carillo family, one of the oldest Spanish families in the State, and was formerly a beautiful woman. She married Mr. Jackson in 1873, and their domestic life has not been a happy one.

Her husband is very well known in Los Angeles, and has been a surveyor and contractor of some prominence. He and his wife have been separated for some months.

It is said that Mrs. Jackson has known of the existence of a first wife for some time past, and has been considering the step taken yesterday with a view to releasing herself from the awkward position in which she has been placed.

It is also stated by friends of Mr. Jackson that he was not aware, at the time of his marriage with his present wife, that his first wife was alive, and that he believed himself to be a free man, and in a position to contract a new alliance.

The relations between the couple were very much strained last year when they were living in East Los Angeles, and there were rumors at the time that there had been an exciting scene at the residence, in which a shot was fired at some man who hurriedly left the house.

Mrs. Jackson has retained Messrs. Finlayson and Finlayson as her attorneys in the present case, and there will undoubtedly be some startling developments when it comes to trial.

THE REDONDO CONDEMNATION SUITS.

The case of the Redondo Railway Company vs. George Zobelein et al., to secure a condemnation for a right of way over land in the southwestern part of the city, came to an end yesterday. The case has occupied several days in its trial, and a large number of witnesses were examined to ascertain the value of land sought to be taken for right of way purposes, and the damage to adjoining property. The opinions of witnesses varied considerably in regard to the matters at issue, and the legal battle was stubbornly fought. Mr. Lamme of Messrs. Brunson, Wilson & Lamme represented the railroad, and A. W. Hutton, Esq., the defendants. After exhaustive arguments, in which the mass of testimony was ably reviewed on both sides, the case was given to the jury about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were out until after dark, when a verdict was reached, and was announced, proving to be quite a victory for the railroad company.

The verdict was as follows: The value of the strip of land to be taken from Mr. Zobelein's land was fixed at $239, and the damage to his adjoining property at $283; total, $522; value of land in the John Graff tract was fixed at $648.90, and the damage at $200; total, $848.90; value of Arnold Cordes's land, $745.50; damage, $400; total, $1145.50. The total verdict in value of lands and damages was thus $2516.40. The railroad company beside is directed to build fences and cattle-guards along the right of way, which will cost about seven hundred and twenty-eight dollars and twenty-two cents. The property-owners through whose land the road will run, to its connection with the cable system on Grand avenue, had set their figures considerably higher than that awarded by the verdict of the jury, believing that it would be somewhere in the neighborhood of ten thousand dollars.

FUNNY SMUGGLING CASE.

Ernest Wulff was tried in the United States District Court yesterday under an indictment, charging him with smuggling, and the trial was as much of a circus as allowable before the dignified demeanor of Judge Ross, owing to the fact that J. Marion Brooks, Esq., was counsel for the defendant, and conducted himself in his usual wild and woolly style.

The defendant was charged with smuggling twelve live goats across the line at Tia Juana into San Diego county June 15, 1889, from Mexico, without paying the ad valorem duty of 20 per cent. on each goat required by law.

The principal witness against Wulff was one of his former partners in the butcher business at Tia Juana and San Diego, F. Heilbron, the other partner being Max Otto, who has eluded arrest by remaining across the line in Mexico, much to the discomfiture of the officers.

He brought his book into the court-room, and in his testimony called off several items of "lambs" received and entered, as he swore, by the defendant.

J. Marion Brooks wanted to know what the witness meant by calling off "lambs" as "goats," and when the latter replied that goats were always entered as "lambs" in their business, he objected to any such testimony going in. Even the Court was almost forced to smile when he battered away at the witness to settle the goat question, and finally J. Marion evolved the term "lamb-goat" to cover the question, with which he appeared to be satisfied.

"Then you sold goats for lambs to the San Diego boys, did you, Mr. Heilbron?" he asked.

"I sold lambs for lambs."

"Lamb-goats?"

"Yes; that is if any one asked if it was a kid or a sheep lamb, he was told. I don't want to be made out a cheat or a fraud."

The witness returned an excited denial of questions charging him, in connection with a man named Allison, with having conspired to send the defendant to the penitentiary, and with having taken money to be paid to witnesses against him, saying he was not for sale. He also denied saying in the corridors of the courthouse that he would send Wulff to prison. But he said he received profits, if there were any, from the sale of the meat in the business.

Mr. Montgomery, Inspector of Customs at Tia Juana, testified that there was only one entry of goats made by Wulff for the payment of duty, and that was for 12, in May, 1889.

Mr. Zortman, now a constable at Tia Juana, testified that he saw Max Otto kill three goats once, about the time mentioned in the indictment, and brought several to San Diego, when driving for the firm.

The defendant then went on the stand, the prosecution having rested, and denied ever having sold any goats as lambs, or having brought any across the line without paying duty.

The case was submitted without argument by Mr. Cole or Mr. Brooks, and the Court instructed the jury that if they found the defendant had ever had any goats in his possession and sold any on which the duty was not paid they must find him guilty. After being out about an hour a verdict of not guilty was returned, and the defendant was discharged.

PASADENA SEWER CASES.

The case of the City of Pasadena vs. Thomas B. Bishop was concluded yesterday. It has been on trial for several days in Department No. 5 of the Superior Court, before Judge McKinley, and is one of a large number of suits brought by the city to condemn a right of way for a sewer to the proposed sewer farm. The case has been one in which a large amount of testimony was taken, the defendant claiming that his property, which lies near the sewer farm, would be damaged to the extent of $50,000.

The jury retired for consultation at 4:30 o'clock and came back twice for additional instructions, returning a verdict later in the evening in favor of the plaintiff, condemning the right of way and assessing the damage to the defendant at $1.

NOTES.

Chormicle and Gardner yesterday pleaded not guilty before Judge Cheney to the charge of murder, and their case will be set for trial next Monday. They will not sever, preferring to be tried together.

Dan McLeod and John Stewart, serving terms in the County Jail under convictions by Police Judge Stanton before the recent decision of the Supreme Court, were released yesterday by Judge Wade, under habeas corpus proceedings, swelling the number of prisoners who are being released from imprisonment under the decision. In the case of Stewart there was also the additional point that he was serving a term made up of both fine and imprisonment.

A United States Grand Jury panel of 40 was ordered by Judge Ross yesterday, returnable May 15th.

RAISED A ROW.

Quite a Sensation in Temperance Circles—Lively Fight.

A decided sensation has been created in the councils of Good Will Lodge No. 313 of the I. O. G. T. by the resignations of several members that were handed in at a recent meeting and refused.

At the last meeting, one of the members, a rollicking young fellow, who had probably become tired of the restraining influences of the order, tendered his resignation, couched in rather facetious language.

At the time this was handed in, another one accompanied it from a young lady member, who gave no reasons for her resignation. In some mysterious manner a convival outsider, a popular young society blood, became possessed of the secret password, signs and grips of the order, and on every possible occasion genially saluted the members wherever he met them. A number of the young men of the lodge had received these friendly signs and grips from the aforesaid outsider, and when the resignations came in, couched in such unique language, they naturally attributed all this source of sorrow to him, and a couple of the heavily-muscled members organized themselves into a "special committee on castigation," to inflict summary punishment on the daring offender, and report to the lodge.

The genial outsider met one of the committee yesterday morning on Spring street near Third. The committeeman solicited an interview, and declared himself. In return, as the genial outsider expressed himself to a TIMES man, "I gave him a swift kick in the pants, a punch in the nose and a black eye as a portion of his report, and now I want to be interviewed some more." Up to a late hour last night the committee had failed to report, and the non-affiliating outsider is awaiting a further visitation from the lodge. The resignations have not as yet been accepted.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Weekly Meeting of the Directors—The New Fountain.

The new fountain in the main exhibition hall of the Chamber of Commerce was but in operation yesterday afternoon. The fountain has been handsomely decorated by E. Germain, who has placed a number of potted flowers around it.

The rooms over the office have been fitted up, and a fine collection of curios has been placed in one of the rooms by C. C. Smith. Thomas Shooter and Mr. Cline have promised to put in another collection, which will give the chamber the largest and most complete collection in Southern California.

The board of directors held its regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Dr. Widney in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. C. P. Huntington's promised visit to this city next week was brought up, and it was suggested that it be impressed upon him that the San Pedro harbor should be improved as soon as possible. The matter was referred to the president of the chamber and the committee on commerce.

A committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Evans in regard to the Salt Lake and Los Angeles road.

A number of bills were passed and ordered paid, and the property of the chamber insured in the sum of $2000.

The following donations were made yesterday:

Flowers, Mmes. C. J. Stewart, E. Hurlbut, Veda, Alice McComas, T. E. Kimble, R. C. Carlton, Niles Pease, John Bryson, Sr., William Bryson, Albert Hickman, Quackenbush, John Horner, Cornell, Miss Gertie Williamson, Mmes. J. A. Anderson, Scriver, E. Cyrenius, Greenleaf, W. Mitchell, A. A. Lansing, Maj. Nolton; Los Angeles Art Glass Works, sample of painted glass; F. O. Cass, cherries and wild plums.

THE DRY PACTOLUS.

THE TROMBONE AGAIN IN THE SHERIFF'S HANDS.

Attachments Aggregating $7893.30 Dumped on the Concern in a Bunch—Closed for Several Hours, but Afterward Allowed to Resume Until May 7th—Partial List of the Creditors.

A number of attachments were put on the Tribune Publishing Company yesterday by various creditors, and the concern was once more put in the hands of the Sheriff.

The first attachment was levied at 11 o'clock in the morning, and was taken out by the California Bank upon a promissory note for $2000, given by the company September 2, 1889, by the president, H. H. Boyce. It was guaranteed the same day by Boyce, and the interest was paid on it up to March 2, 1890, since which time no interest has been paid, nor any of the principal. It was a sight note, payable one day after date.

At 11:30 o'clock another attachment was made upon the Tribune for $2223.30, upon an execution on a judgment secured some time since by F. P. Elliott for an old paper claim against the company.

It never rains but it pours, and when Mr. Graves came into the Sheriff's office at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and slapped another attachment on those which had gone before, it was asked where this thing was going to end.

This attachment was on a promissory note for $1470, to the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, given by the Tribune Publishing Company—H. H. Boyce, H. E. Smith and H. T. Payne—January 2, 1889. The interest on this note was paid until April 2, 1890, when no more was paid and none of the principal. The company had been given until 3 o'clock to settle it, but not having heard anything from them, Mr. Graves proceeded to attach, with instructions to shut up the paper and levy on all the available material in the office.

In compliance with these reqeests a keeper, Ed Shipman, was put in charge of the office, and an inventory of the material was taken.

Just betore the Sheriff's office closed another attachment was placed on top of the others, this time by Maj. Bonebrake, upon a promissory note given recently by the Tribune Publishing Company, H. H. Boyce and Lionel A. Sheldon to Isaac H. Bryson for $2200.

The total amount of the indebtedness developed by the attachments and execution was $7893.30.

The keeper proceeded to put everything under lock and key at the Tribune office, and the news was soon around on the streets. The reporters and printers gathered around the office and looked exceedingly blue over the prospect of the culmination of the long-expected crash.

The compositors did not go to work at their usual hour last night, but at 8:05 o'clock it was given out that a temporary arrangement had been made and they went to work.

Manager H. W. Hellman agreed to allow the company until May 7th to settle the bank's note for $1470, and the other creditors gave their consent to delay until that time.

Mr. Sheldon, in discussing the matter yesterday, stated that he and his associates were taken completely by surprise when the attachments came tumbling in on them so rapidly, as they had no idea of some of the indebtedness which had developed against the concern, as they had not been told of it when they went into the paper, and that there was no way by which they could find it out. Mr. Boyce appears to have again worked the old, old fake successfully.

SANTA MONICA.

Social Events—Wharf Meeting—The License Law.

SANTA MONICA, April 30.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] A Floral Kalendar Kermesse, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church of Santa Monica, will be held at Steere's Opera-house, commencing Thursday evening, May 1st, at 8 o'clock, and will continue day and evening throughout the week. Luncheon, ice cream and soda water will be served.

The programme on Thursday evening will be the grand march of the "Notable Days of the Year;" on Friday evening a cantata, The Queen of Flowers or Coronation of the Rose; on Saturday evening music by Miss E. M. Volkman and her brother, L. Volkman; vocal solo, Mme. Voron; piano solo, Mrs. W. L. Tierney; recitation by Miss Mary Vawter.

On Monday evening the Woman's Relief Corps of Santa Monica gave a very pleasant party at the house of Mrs. Elliott on Fifth street. Quite a large number of invited guests were present, and the evening up to a late hour was spent in music, dancing, card-playing and social conversation. These ladies are to be congratulated on their success in making this one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the season.

At the trustees' meeting on Monday night an ordinance was passed to the effect that no license tax be levied on the merchants of Santa Monica. No action was taken on the liquor license, which was left to be discussed at a special meeting on Thursday. A. Carillo was elected night-watchman, in place of former night-watchman Chase.

A wharf meeting was held on Tuesday to fix a date for a meeting at which the stockholders should meet Mr. Luteweiler. This meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 5th.

The friends and pupils of Miss Louise Lyde are glad to see her well enough to take her accustomed place in the schoolroom once more.

Miss Carrie Miller, who has been visiting the family of T. J. Newby, will leave on Thursday for her home in Indianapolis. J. L. S.

GEO. A. WERNER.

Geo. A. Werner, the well known book engraver, of 531 California St., S. F., writes to the Edwin W Joy Co., that his wife has been taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla for months for liver trouble and indigestion with splendid results. He says, "we have found it invaluable for keeping the system regulated. It divides the load with a dyspepsial stomach and replaces the distressing sense of fulness and oppression with a feeling of ease and relief. It is a perfect liver and bowel regulator. We have both been taking it for months. It is good to have handy."

ITS COMPANY LIABLE IN $500,000 DAMAGES?

Begun by Col. Blanton Duncan Before the Interstate Commerce Commission—Points of the Complaint.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.), April 22.—[Special Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Suit has been filed against the Southern Pacific Company by Col. Blanton Duncan before the Interstate Commerce Commission, involving important matters of law, as well as personal damages. If sustained the company might have to pay fines to the amount of $500,000. Below will be found the powerful pleadings:

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, through its contracting agent, made a contract with complainant, in writing, to transport from Louisville to Los Angeles, a carload of emigrant movables, not to exceed 20,000 pounds in weight, for the sum of $263, which was the rate for such carloads for emigrants.

It was further agreed that some hams, lard, apples, butter, eggs, cheese, etc., should be part of his said emigrant movables, without becoming subject to any further demand or claim—because they were a different and lower classification than household effects. Complainant was assured by the contracting agent that his railroad was properly authorized to act as the agent of the said Southern Pacific Company.

On the 1st of February, 1889, complainant gave $263 to the Southern Pacific Transfer Company in payment of freight. A portion of the carload was removed, but subsequently the Southern Pacific Company refused to deliver the provisions, and claimed that it was a mixed carload, and demanded an additional sum of money, as freight, amounting to $128.20. Complainant furnished to the Southern Pacific Company copy of his said contract, and explained that he did not receive a bill of lading because he had started for California before the goods were loaded and shipped.

Notwithstanding this, the said company, by its agents, arbitrarily seized and detained complainant's property, to the value of about seven hundred dollars, without due process of law, and in violation of the contract made with him by the Louisville and Nashville, a connecting railway, authorized to make such contract for the Southern Pacific Company—fully responsible and solvent, in accounting with the said Southern Pacific Company for any non-authorized act, as between the said railway companies; and at the time the said last named company had in its possession a new car belonging to the first named company, in which the said goods had been shipped.

The said Southern Pacific Company continued to hold the said goods under its arbitrary and illegal claim until the 14th of March, 1889, when complainant engaged Anderson, Fitzgerald & Anderson to prosecute the said company for its illegal acts. The company's agent, learning that the summons was about to be placed in the hands of the Sheriff for service, requested a delay of some days from the said firm, and subsequently notified complainant that the claim for freight was withdrawn and his said effects would be surrendered on demand. Complainant accepted the surrender of the goods, with notice that he would hold the company responsible for all damage resulting from their arbitrary and illegal acts. The apples had rotted, and had been sold in part by the said company. The cheese had spoiled, and the other articles greatly damaged, so that he was compelled to sell them without delay. Complainant filed with said company his claim for the damage done, to which no reply was made until the 13th February, 1890, when a peremptory refusal to pay was made on the part of the general traffic manager, H. Gray. The cash received for part of complainant's goods was kept by the said company, and full reclamation ignored.

Second—Complainant says that by the contract 20,000 pounds was allowed on the shipment, but that in reality the weight of the furniture did not exceed six thousand pounds, and the weight of the effects seized by the company was about fifty-seven hundred pounds, and that the said company not only received the price of 20,000 pounds, which is in violation of the decisions of this tribunal, but attempted to exact nearly 50 per cent. more.

Complainant says that this Southern Pacific Company, some months prior to this transaction, had entered into an illegal combination with 21 other railroads, under the title of the "Transcontinental Traffic Association" for the purpose of evading the interstate commerce laws, on the subject of pooling and combinations for that object. And he says that certain sales and regulations were made for governing the said railroads and preventing any competition between the various common carriers, to the detriment and for the spoliation of the public.

Complainant says that under their own rules, so laid down, a carload of emigrant movables could be sent forward of the most mixed character, including cows and horses, or provisions for a family use for one year, at the rate named of $263. But that this arbitrary corporation attempted to exact $25 more through a claim upon the transfer company of that sum after the receipt of the $263, and that the transfer company made this claim on complainant, alleging that the said sum had been retained against them by the Southern Pacific Company. Complainant says that in January, 1889, he sent a carload of household effects over the Santa Fé Railroad to Los Angeles at the tariff price, $263. He says that the said Southern Pacific Railroad has discriminated against him on their own published freight rates in the sum of $25, for which he asks that this tribunal shall fine the said company a proper amount, as well as for the violation of the law in being in an illegal association since the 1st of January, 1889, for which the penalty is $1000 per day.

Complainant says that the Supreme Court of Texas enjoined the said Southern Pacific Company from acting with the said association throughout Texas, but that the said company not only defies law and continues its illegal acts, but compels other companies to continue to do wrong, as for example the Santa Fe, under threat of making war upon any line refusing to do its behests. Complainant charges THAT THIS soulless CORPORATION, UNDER THE CONTROL OF ITS SOULLESS MANAGERS, ARROGATES TO ITSELF THE SOLE MAKING OF LAWS, VIOLATES WITHOUT SCRUPLE ITS PUBLISHED TARIFF, KEEPING NO FAITH WITH OTHER CORPORATIONS, WITH GOD, OR EVEN THE DEVIL.

Fourth—Complainant says that he has been treated fairly by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, which did its part and the contract complied with, as far as possible. But that the said Southern Pacific Company refused to act, except upon its own construction of contracts, in accordance with its arbitrary rulings. Complainant prays that process may be served upon the said Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and that the said corporation be made a party to this proceeding and be required to answer therein. He prays for an adjudication of the rights of connecting railways in regard to contracts made by them in good faith. He charges that said Southern Pacific Company made improper discrimination in passenger traffic over their lines in the month of January, 1889, and says that on the 17th, 18th and 19th of January, 1889 he traveled from New Orleans to Los Angeles, and paid at Louisville for through tickets, first class, $74 50, and that on the same train and at the same time, he had evidence, which he is prepared to produce, that in Cincinnati—a point 130 miles further East than Louisville—tickets were sold over the Southern Pacific Company to San Diego, upon which the passengers traveled up to Los Angeles, and thence to San Diego, a point 80 miles further, for the sum of $70 per ticket.

He further charges that the Southern Pacific Company, in violation of both Federal and State law, compels merchants and others at points east of Los Angeles to have their freight hauled through those stations onward to Los Angeles, and then hauled back fifty or one hundred miles, with an additional local rate charged and collected. He charges that citizens are powerless to obtain redress in the local tribunals, without expenditure of far more than the actual freights, and he asks that the said corporation shall be cited before this tribunal [the Interstate Commerce Commission] to appear and answer the charges and evidence to be produced by complainant.

HIGH ART.

The Exhibition of the Ruskin Club —A Fine Display.

The art exhibition now open at the Crocker building, under the auspices of the Ruskin Art Club of this city, marks a new awakening in the history of art in Los Angeles. It is to art what the Flower Festival is to the floral kingdom, an expression of the lovely, the grand and the beautiful. The large room is hung on either side with art treasures. Two hundred and twenty-eight wood engravings of some of the best works of modern art are among this collection, and cover an entire side of the long room. Upon the other side are pictures by the same artists, which were not embraced in the Paris collection, but which are no less meritorious, and which illustrate the perfection which wood engraving has reached in this country. The rooms are brilliantly lighted with electric lights, the walls are decorated with palms, beautiful flowers lend brightness and fragrance, and rare oriental rugs and rich drapery all combine to produce a most harmonious and effective picture, one not only to delight the eye, but to inspire the soul with a love for the methods which the true artist employs to express the great truths which are embodied in Nature.

HORTICULTURAL NOTES.

Potatoes are now being manufactured into a durable paint.

The maple-sugar season is over. There was about a half crop, yet it fetches but 7 cents in many places in Vermont.

Texas farmers have been greatly tormented by the depredations of rats, which have destroyed their crops in many cases.

Paper fruit baskets are finding great favor among growers. They are cheap, light, strong and can be made any desired color.—[Pacific Rural.

Plowing by steam has been introduced in Walla Walla Valley, Wash., and is pronounced a success. Heretofore it has cost $2 per acre to plow, while under the new system it can be done for 40 cents.

The Boston bean market is very firm, and prices are on the steady advance. The crop raised in the United States in 1889 was not over two-thirds of an average crop, which meant a shortage of about one million bushels.

Last year Orange county cabbage-growers only got five to six dollars a ton for their cabbage. Contracts have been made this year at $15 a ton, but reports say that owing to the low prices last year the acreage will not be so large.

It is said that a decoction of green eucalyptus leaves is a stronger and more lasting stimulant than tea or coffee, and more salutary in its effects, as it does not cause wakefulness. It seems to have the stimulating effect of quinine without any of its injurious qualities.

Farmers in Eastern Kansas report that a wire worm is doing great damage to wheat. The worm is about an inch long, and the thickness of fine wire, of a dark-brown color. Wherever it works the wheat withers. It resembles closely the wire worm common in Ireland.

Throughout France gardening is practically taught in the primary and elementary schools. There are about twenty-eight thousand of these schools, each of which has a garden attached to it, and is under the care of a master capable of imparting a knowledge of the first principles of horticulture.

The vastness of the rabbit plague in Australia is indicated by the fact that the government of New South Wales estimates the expense of erecting rabbit-proof wire fencing in the western and central districts of the colony at $15,000,000.

The good people of Bakersfield are agitated over the establishing of a tomato catsup and preserving factory. Their local papers state that Reynolds Bros. of Cincinnati, O., have offered to establish the factory if the farmers will guarantee to raise 1000 acres of tomatoes this season.—[Pacific Rural.

There is reported to be a general feed famine in Boone and Wyoming counties, W. Va. It is said that cattle are dying daily. Yokes of oxen worth seventy-five to one hundred dollars are being sold for $20 and $25. Corn, which has been selling at $1.25 and $1.50 per bushel, cannot be bought at any price now.

A perfumery factory has been established in Florida, and these are the prices paid for flowers: Orange blossoms, 10 cents per pound; tube roses, 15 cents; Arabian jasmine, 15 cents; heliotrope, 20 cents; violets, 50 cents; magnolia, 10 cents; fragrant roses, 10 cents; orange leaves, 10 cents; rose geranium leaves, 4 cents. The plant for distilling cost $1800.—[Citrograph.

Oil-meal as Stock Feed.

A little oil-meal mixed with other feed is especially valuable in spring for both cattle and horses. It promotes digestion and helps loosen the old coat of hair, as well as to make the new one come on glossy and beautiful. It is often said that fattening food must not be given to horses at work, but oil-meal is strength-giving as well as fattening.

THE DEMOCRATS.

THE PROBABLE PLAN OF THE CAMPAIGN.

A Move to Induce Hon. Stephen M. White to Make an Active Canvass for the United States Senatorship — Resolutions Adopted by the County Executive Committee—Important Meeting.

An important meeting of the executive committee of the Democratic County Central Committee was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Iroquois Club, on First street. The meeting was important from the fact that the Democratic plan of campaign for the State election was outlined, at least so far as the party in this end of the State can control it. Ever since the last election there has been more or less talk among Democrats of presenting the name of Hon. Stephen M. White for Governor. In fact, his name has been the only one seriously mentioned here in that connection for the office. Mr. White has always stated positively that he would not accept the nomination under any circumstances, that he was not an aspirant for any office, but it has been generally believed that should circumstances develop that would make it possible to elect a Democratic Legislature, thereby securing the United States Senatorship, he could be induced to make an active canvass for the position, and it was primarily for the purpose of defining Mr. White's position in the campaign, and securing his active aid and coöperation, that the meeting of the committee was held yesterday afternoon to officially determine upon a plan which has been under discussion for some time past. This plan is that Mr. White shall make a thorough canvass of the State as an avowed candidate for the Senatorship, making speeches in all the principal cities, taking the ground that Senators should be elected by the popular vote, but, as this cannot be done at this time, urging the election of Democrats to the Legislature as the first step in this direction—in other words, that the Democratic platform is the election of United States Senators by the popular vote.

The meeting of the committee was fully attended, and at 2 o'clock Chairman Germain called the body to order, when all outsiders were excluded, and the session proceeded with closed doors. After the usual discussion, the following resolution, embodying the proposed plan, with the usual Democratic flamboyant hyperbole and rhetorical pyrotechnics, formulated by Maj. W. H. Burke, was carried by a unanimous vote:

The Democratic Executive Committee of Los Angeles county hails with the liveliest interest the awakening sentiment of the American people, from zone to zone, for an upper house of the National Legislature in consonance with Democratic tenets and practices, and we unequivocally indorse and shall zealously support that sentiment which means the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. Thus, standing upon the high ground of true Democracy, and in the absence of a rule for such direct vote of the people, we earnestly solicit Hon. Stephen M. White to stand before the people during the coming campaign for the position of United States Senator, according to the present rules of election, feeling confident of the honest and no uncertain response when they come to vote for members of the Assembly and Senate in November next.

Never has there been a more propitious season for this great step forward. The American Senate has, in many respects, departed from the position made for it by the fathers of the Republic, which it was designed to occupy as the sheet anchor of the Constitution by the Washingtons, the Franklins, the Hamiltons, the Jeffersons and the Madisons. Profoundly impressed with the great issue, we earnestly solicit the coöperation of Mr. White, for all it expresses and implies. Be it

Resolved, that the secretary of this committee wait upon the distinguished gentleman, and convey to him this sentiment, with a wish and a hope that he will give a response which shall cause the political pulse to quicken and throb throughout the length and breadth of this Commonwealth.

The secretary was also instructed to telegraph the resolutions to Washington, which was done, and after some time spent in talking over the political outlook, the unterrified broke up and adjourned.

Mr. White, when asked last night what action he would take, stated that he had heard of the resolutions, but that they had not yet been officially presented to him, and until he had time to carefully consider the matter, he did not care to say what he would do.

A well-known Democrat, and a member of the committee, in conversation with a TIMES reporter last evening, said: "The action of the committee this afternoon virtually settles the whole thing. Mr. White, I don't think, will refuse what we ask; in fact, I don't see how he can, and in this case the Democratic nominee for Governor will be Mayor Pond of San Francisco. Mr. Pond will lose about sixty-five votes of the 'Frisco delegation, which will leave him 40, and as he will get the "solid south" and most of the north and central delegations, I regard his nomination as much of a surety as that of Markham on the Republican side. The outlook for a lively campaign under these circumstances is very flattering, and it will be fought hard from the start to the finish."

DIED.

KAHLE—In this city, April 30, 1890, Miss Emilia Kahle, a native of Germany.

WHAT PEOPLE NEED NOW.

Something That Will Strengthen the Nerves and Purify the Blood—There Is but One Medicine That Combines These Powers.

At this season of the year thousands upon thousands of people are suffering from general debility, thin blood, nervousness and a state of exhaustion. This is the natural result of the mode of life in the winter. Numerous skin and blood diseases are common, and there is hardly a person who does not need a reliable medicine. In at least nine cases out of ten no ordinary "blood purifier" or bitters will give the health and vigor so sadly lacking, and a medicine that will both purify the blood and strengthen the nerves is an absolute necessity.

There is but one medicine that possesses these combined properties, and that is the great discovery of Prof. Phelps, Paine's Celery Compound. This vegetable restorative is food for the nerves and a builder-up of brain power. It is a scientific preparation, and has curative properties that have hitherto been unknown. It contains the medicinal virtues of our American herbs and barks, with the nerve-strengthening and brain-invigorating qualities of rare South American plants. A hard-working man who has become unfit for business, and is nervous, fidgety, irritable, with melancholy and a sad habit of always looking on the dark side of things, is the kind of patient that physicians are treating so often at this time. His headache, dizziness, loss of appetite and weak feelings will all be removed by the use of Paine's Celery Compound. This grand restorative will strengthen his nervous system, give him a good appetite and so clear his brain that business plans and other affairs of life can be conducted clearly. Ambition will return, his step will be brisker, the color will come back to his cheeks, and all the friends whom he meets will say: "Why, how much better you are looking!"

AROUND TOWN.

NARROW ESCAPE OF A YOUNG CHILD FROM DEATH.

A Baby Badly Mangled by a Locomotive—A Suspicious Character in Town—Lawn Tennis—Lost His Foot.

There was a slight accident yesterday morning near Lincoln Park Station on the Santa Fé railroad. A. J. Searl, a carpenter who lives at Lincoln Park, had his year-and-a-half-old baby, who was playing by the track, struck by the engine of the 8:18 o'clock train, which is in charge of Conductor Reeder. It seems that the mother had allowed the baby to play in front of the residence, which is quite close to the track, and some 300 yards south of the station, and the child managed to get to the track before it was observed, and before the mother could rescue it from its dangerous playground, the engine and cars came rushing around the sharp curve, and the child was struck by the engine, the head being bruised and its little hands crushed. The accident resulted in the amputation of two of the child's fingers. The injured child was attended to in Los Angeles.

A Suspicious Character.

There is a very peculiar character at large at present in Pasadena, who has been roaming the streets and visiting the residences of different parties with the assumed purpose of selling written visiting cards, he being the vendor and penman. He is said to approach a house, accost any children he chances to meet, asking them if any "men folks" are around, walk deliberately upon the front galleries, and often peep through the windows, etc. He is described as a man of medium height, black hair and beard, of middle age, and speaking broken English with a German accent. His dress is a black suit, slouch hat and brown shoes. From the description given, the man is either a monomaniac or a suspicious character, and all would do well to be on the lookout, especially the police.

Lawn Tennis.

Yesterday afternoon was a gala one at the lawn-tennis court on Walnut street, where the members of the Pasadena Lawn-tennis Court assembled for a May-day celebration. Flowers were in the greatest profusion, there was a May pole and an exquisite luncheon was spread. A number of interesting lawn-tennis games were played. In the ladies' singles, Miss English won, while in the gentlemen's singles, Mr. Van Doren was victor. In the mixed doubles, Miss English and Mr. Van Doren were the winners; in the ladies' doubles, Misses Bradley and Shoemaker; in the men's doubles, Messrs. Chambers and Channing.

Lost His Foot.

Yesterday James McLachlan of this city received a newspaper under date of April 24th, from his old home in Croton, N. Y., which gave him the first information of a sad and singular accident that befell his brother, Duncan McLachlan, while crossing a railroad bridge in Croton, which resulted in amputation of the left foot about four inches above the ankle. Less than two years ago Willie Tiffany, a nephew, had his right foot taken off by the cars in much the same manner only a few rods from the place where Mr. McLachlan lost his. The newspaper account stated that Mr. McLachlan was getting along very well under the circumstances.

The New Superintendent.

Yesterday morning C. C. Brown was safely launched as master of the Superintendent of Streets' ship. He says that he is in favor of taking one street at a time and putting it in perfect order. As he has not yet held counsel with the chairman of the Committee on Streets and Alleys he says that he is scarcely prepared to give an opinion as to what will be done first. Street-worker Smith will continue in office under the new administration.

BREVITIES.

The Shakespeare Club will meet with Mrs. D. D. Hill this afternoon.

The Cross depot is to have a news stand. Pasadena is fast becoming metropolitan.

Ed Dunham of Los Angeles is constantly improving his beautiful country home in La Cañada Valley.

The ladies' society of the Episcopal Church will give a children's entertainment in the near fututure.

There was a large picnic yesterday over the Cross road from Garvanza and Highland Park to the Devil's Gate.

It is reported that the members of the Band of Hope are preparing for a day's outing at Devil's Gate some day next week.

At the Lamanda Park Presbyterian Church Miss Pollock and Mr. Allen were married Wednesday afternoon last.

Prof. Hiram E. Butler, editor of the Esoteric Magazine, gave a very interesting lecture on the esoteric system at Glen Rosa Wednesday afternoon last.

Yesterday morning a Pasadena party set out for Wilson Peak, composed of Frank Bushnell and wife, Mrs. Jones and son, Ed Jones, Miss Betts, Mmes. W. T. Kyle, Layton and daughter.

Whatever may have come and gone with May day in other parts of the world, it must be recorded as matter of fact that May day in Pasadena was only conspicuous by being phenomenally dull.

Twenty-five hundred dollars is the price recently paid by Dr. Shoemaker of this city for the 10 acres of land on the corner of Craig avenue and San Pascual street. Woodworth & Marriner negotiated the sale.

An earnest effort is being made to clear the Y.M.C.A. of all indebtedness, the obligations of the association today amounting to $800. The question of title to the so-called Y.M.C.A. property on South Fair Oaks has not yet been decided by the courts.

At 8 o'clock this evening the North Pasadena Congregational Church will hold its first annual church meeting, when the reports of the officers and pastor will be submitted. After the meeting supper will be served and the evening made socially pleasant.

The Pasadena Charity Society is contemplating the opening of a flower festival. Why should not the Crown City of the beautiful San Gabriel Valley follow the example of her sister cities, Los Angeles and San Diego, by holding a mammoth flower festival?

An oil stove exploded in the rooms occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Conant in the Jones block, Alhambra, Wednesday evening last, and caused about a hundred and fifty dollar fire, burning up all the clothing, the curtains, some woodwork and fixtures in the room. Mrs. Conant was slightly burned.

M. R. Cotes, F.R.G.S., and family of England are visiting Pasadena. They are stopping at Mrs. E. B. Dexter's, Orange Grove avenue.

Rev. G. A. Ottmann and wife left yesterday afternoon for San Francisco, by water, to attend the State Episcopal convention which convenes on May 7th.

Miss Flora Finlayson and sisters, Mrs. Gillespie and Mrs. Lambertson, paid a visit on Wednesday to their old-time Reno friends, Mrs. C. A. White and family of Hollistor avenue, and spent a happy and reminiscent day.

Causes of Agricultural Depression.

Secretary Rusk of the United States Department of Agriculture has issued a circular letter on the subject of agricultural depression, from which we make the following extracts:

It seems to me that our system of taxation demands improvement in certain directions. The cost of supporting the Government needs to be most equitably adjusted among the different classes of our people. At present in many States the burden of local taxation presses heavily upon farm property, its very nature rendering it easily assessable. Every corporation created by the State, and to whom special privileges are granted, either by State, county or incorporated village or city, should be taxed in proportion to its earnings, and in all ways the principle of taxation should be to place the burden of maintaining the Government, whether State, municipal or national, upon the luxuries and comforts which the wealthy enjoy, and to reduce it to a minimum in its application to the hardly-earned property of the poor man.

Another cause operating to depress the price of the farmer's honest toil is the undue increase of the class of middlemen, and the dishonesty and greed of many of them. Hence the wide gulf between the high prices charged to the consumer and the low prices paid to the producer. The middleman, within certain limits, must be regarded as a necessity. There are many things he can do for the farmers which the latter can not do so profitably for themselves, and under such conditions it is wise to employ him. The evil which exists at the present day in this direction could undoubtedly be mitigated by, first, a familiarity on the part of the farmer himself with the market value of that which he has to sell, and second, a better system of coöperation among the farmers, both in the disposal of their crops and in the purchase of their supplies.

Keeping Potatoes.

Robert Campion of San Diego, in conversation with a reporter of the Union, lately said: I have noticed a general complaint that potatoes grown in this county do not possess the keeping qualities of the foreign grown. Now I claim to be an expert on potato raising, and have carefully examined specimens from various parts of the county. I believe that San Diego potatoes are equal to the tubers raised in any other part of the globe.

The difficulty of keeping potatoes in a marketable condition seems to lie entirely with the growers of this county, and it appears that, when the potatoes are dug, no precautions are taken to exclude them from the air and sunlight. Now, in Ireland and other European countries, where potatoes form one of the chief articles of food, great care is exercised that they be kept perfectly sound from the time of their digging in September or October until the new crop come in, which is 12 months later.

How do they do it? Well, the modus operandi in Ireland is as follows: When the potatoes are dug they are immediately picked up and deposited in a trench near by, about three feet deep and two-and-a-half feet wide, and heaped very carefully in pyramidal form, pains being taken to avoid bruising them. Straw is then placed over them to the depth of about two inches, and earth placed over the straw to the depth of about four inches. Another layer of straw is placed on top of this, and then more earth on top again. This is done to exclude both the air and the sunshine, which so quickly deteriorate the value of potatoes in San Diego county. But there is no reason why potatoes treated as I have described should not keep perfectly sound for 12 months.

Open Markets.

[Pacific Rural.]

To San Diego belongs the honor of introducing the system of open markets into California. For some time past the ladies' annex and the San Diego Chamber of Commerce have worked hard and faithfully to establish an open market. In eastern cities this is the recognized way of legitimately disposing of vegetables, fruits, etc., and is directly opposite to the methods employed in California. Here our streets are lined with peddlers and hucksters of all sorts, and every little corner grocery is supposed to keep an assortment of vegetables, fruits, etc. As good illustrations, on a large scale, of the open market system, there may be mentioned the Washington Market of New York, the Utah of Baltimore and the K Street of Washington. The producers drive direct to the market place and dispose of their goods in open competition. Market day in the eastern towns and cities is recognized among the ladies as one of the most important events of the week. In this way there is but little opportunity for fraud and exorbitant prices, for the entire stock of each producer or dealer is exhibited in direct competition with all of his associates. The system is a most admirable one, and if it proves a success in San Diego it will more than likely spread to other towns and cities in the State.

WOMAN AND HOME.

The Relations That Should Exist in the Home Circle.

To "bear and forbear" should be the recognized law of every household. Poor human nature is weak at best, and there are often unintentionally words spoken that may cause heart-burning and sorrow. But between those of the home circle there should never come any lasting bitterness of feeling, any doubt or distrust, even with words that wound.

The big, outside world, taken as a whole, is a selfish world. Everybody feels that it is his duty to look after his own affairs. Business interests are not attended to for the sake of the public good, but for the good of the family or individual dependent upon such interests. This setting "the solitary in families" is one of the divinest things in human existence, and this family idea, carried out, with its links of endearment and its community of interests and hopes, is the crown of human gladness, redeeming us from isolation and selfishness.

Two persons of strong individuality cannot always think just alike upon every subject, but that does not necessitate any feeling of unpleasantness, if each gives to the other the credit of honestly differing. Life would be tame enough if the wife would only echo the words of her husband, or the husband reflect but the sentiments of the wife. Let these differences come, but if marriage is formed upon the right basis—mutual affection and trust—they will not work harm. If each has the feeling that the other's intentions are all right there never need be any wall of separation between them on account of a mere temporary difference of opinion.

Another thing. Husband and wife, if you have experienced anything to cause a feeling of estrangement, do not let any sentiment of false pride stand between you and reconciliation. It should cause you no effort to say, "I have been in the wrong and I am sorry." I think it a nice thing for each and all of us married people to occasionally take a day when we can stand face to face with our own inner selves, to uncover our faults for the purpose of rectifying them. I think that almost every individual has faults of which he is not fully conscious, and it is wise to seek the discovery of these lurking enemies to our perfect peace. Go sometimes to the quiet of your chamber and commune with yourself there. Study the principles by which you are controlled and the motives which actuate you. Seek to find out whether you have grown narrow and uncharitable from not mingling much with the world. See if you are inclined to do justice, and to deal generously each with the other. Or have you grown suspicious and doubting? If so, you will find in this the destroyer of your happiness if you permit suspicion and doubt to live. Perfect trust, perfect faith are essential to a happy married life. The moment distrust comes in at the door of home happiness goes out. So do not let it enter. Watchful affection can bar it out forever.

NOTES.

From Peterson's Magazine I take the following excellent recipes:

Silver Cake.—The whites of 16 eggs, one pound of sugar, three-quarters of a pound of butter, one pound of flour. Beat the eggs stiff; add the sugar and butter, creamed together; stir in the flour; add two ounces of almonds, sweet and bitter mixed; blanch and beat them to a paste with rosewater.

Golden Cake.—Take the yolks of 16 eggs, one pound of sugar, three-quarters of a pound of butter, one pound of flour. Beats the eggs light; add the butter and sugar, creamed, and then the flour. Season with lemon, vanilla or almonds.

To Perfume Linen.—Rose-leaves dried in the shade, cloves beaten to a powder, mace scraped. Mix them together, and put the composition into bags.

Apple Compote.—Peel, core, and halve six large apples, trimming them so as to get them all of a size; drop them, as they are done, into cold water with the juice of a lemon squeezed into it, to prevent their turning brown. Have ready a strong syrup, made with a pound of sugar and one quart of water, boiling hot; put the apples into this, with the thin rind of a lemon and two or three cloves. As soon as they are cooked—great care must be taken that they do not break—take them out and arrange them on a glass dish, concave side uppermost; place a piece of currant jelly in the hollow of each apple, then well reduce the syrup, and when cold, pour as much of it as is necessary under the apples.

SUSAN SUNSHINE.

Florida Frosts.

[Riverside Press.]

Col. W. C. Fitzsimmons, who has just returned from an extended trip to Florida, said to a representative of this paper that the drouth and frost in that State has been very disastrous. Fully nine-tenths of the young nursery stock has been destroyed, and the early garden truck for this season, also. In one place he visited a year ago they were shipping 1500 crates of garden truck per day, but this year are shipping none at all. He said that he saw bearing peach and orange trees frozen down, and that in all of his journey through the State of Florida he did not see half as many orange blossoms as are on the trees in the two and one-half acre block surrounding the Arlington Hotel.

ORDINANCE OF THE BOARD of Supervisors, providing for the calling of a special election June 7, 1890.

At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors, held April 28, 1890, at which were present a full board and the Clerk, the following ordinance was passed by the following vote:

Ayes—Supervisors Perry, Davis, Hubbard, Martin and Rowan.

Noes—None.

The Board of Supervisors of the county of Los Angeles do ordain as follows:

Section 1. There is required and public necessity demands for the completion of a courthouse for the county of Los Angeles, which courthouse is now in process of erection, in the city of Los Angeles, county of Los Angeles, State of California, the sum of $250,000, and there is also required for the equipment and furnishing of said courthouse the additional sum of $50,000, and there is no money in the treasury of said country applicable to such purpose, and the ordinary revenue of said county will not afford any funds which can be applied to the construction of such courthouse, or the furnishing or equipment thereof, and it is necessary for the best interests of said county that said sums should be raised by the issuance and sale of bonds of said county, of the denomination of one thousand dollars each, to run for twenty years, and to bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent. per annum.

Sec. 2. There shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said county, at a special election, which is hereby called and ordered to take place on the 7th day of June, 1890, the question whether said electors will consent to the issuance of bonds of said county in the sum of $200,000, said bonds to be 200 in number, and of the denomination of $1000 each, to run for twenty years, and to bear interest at a rate not greater than five per cent. per annum.

Sec. 3. The particular purpose for which said indebtedness is to be created is as follows: $250,000 of said indebtedness is to be created and the amount raised by the sale of 250 said bonds, is to be expended in the completion of the construction of the courthouse of said county, such courthouse having been only partially constructed, and being located in the city and county of Los Angeles, State of California, on that certain lot described in a deed from city of Los Angeles to county of Los Angeles, recorded on the 20th day of February, 1886, in book 154, page 112, of deeds, in the Recorder's office of said county, and the balance of said indebtedness, to wit: $50,000 is to be created, and the amount raised by the sale of 50 of said bonds, is to be expended in equipping and furnishing said courthouse. The total number of bonds, as to the issuance of which said electors are so called upon to decide being 250 of the denomination of $1000 each, running for twenty years, and bearing interest at a rate not to exceed five per cent per annum.

Sec. 4. None but qualified electors of said county shall be permitted to vote at such special election, and the same shall be held as nearly as possible in conformity with the general election law of this State, and notice shall be given of such election by the Clerk of this Board by publication in the following newspapers published in said county, for four weeks prior thereto, to wit:

It is further ordained that the ballots to be used at said election shall be printed "For the Issue of Bonds," or "Against the Issue of Bonds," and such of the qualified electors of said county, who desire to vote at said special election for the issuance of said three hundred bonds, of the denomination of $1000 each will vote at said election "For the Issue of Bonds," and such of said electors as desire to vote at such special election against said issue will cast their ballots, "Against the Issue of Bonds."

CITY BRIEFS

The Board of Health failed to meet last evening.

The Young Goldies defeated the Temple-street nine by a score of 18 to 4 yesterday afternoon.

Cards are out announcing the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Tidball of No. 731 Washington street.

Work on the new Widney building, at the northwest corner of Broadway and Sixth street, is progressing rapidly.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Dillon will take place from No. 128 South Broadway at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

According to the Health Officer's report there were 64 deaths in the city during April, and 71 births during the same time.

H. Smith was arrested on Victoria street yesterday about noon by Detective Bosqui, and locked up on a charge of petit larceny.

During the month of April 160 cases were tried in the police court, and fines imposed to the amount of $2287.75, of which $949.95 was collected.

First street is in a filthy condition at present, and there are a number of complaints from citizens who think the Health Officer should take the matter in hand.

The Board of Public Works did not make the usual trip over the city yesterday afternoon. The wagon was promptly on hand, but the statesmen failed to materialize.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday as follows: Francisco Resgio, aged 25, and Pietra Higuera, aged 22, of Puente; George W. Adams, aged 55, of Jacksonville, Ill., and Margaret Truitt, aged 50, of Los Angeles.

This afternoon there will be a game of base-ball at the Athletic Park, between the Bostonian Opera Company's nine and H. C. Wyatt's Grand Opera-house nine. Both nines are composed of expert players, and a good game may be expected.

The will of William McCartney, deceased, was filed for probate yesterday. Mrs. Nora McCartney, the widow, is appointed executrix, without bond. The estate is valued at $100,000. There are five children, the eldest being 18 years old, and the youngest 5.

Yesterday morning a Chinese actor, named Lee Leong, reported at the police station that his room had been burglarized, and about $600 worth of costumes stolen. A Chinaman is suspected of the crime. The detectives are investigating the case.

All arrangements were complete yesterday, and the first meal for the city prisoners, under the new system of cooking at the station, was prepared yesterday afternoon. One of the prisoners, a Chinaman, is the cook. It is expected that the change will result in a considerable saving to the city.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph office for Mrs. N. J. Allmon, Mrs. Ollie E. Wells, Miss Concepcion Apablasa, S. O. Scott, Louis Jones, Bena Marochuk, W. D. Gamble, J. H. Kinsler and Robert N. Moore.

The Redondo Beach Hotel was formally opened yesterday. About seven hundred invited guests went down from this city and were highly entertained by the Redondo Beach Company. The hotel is one of the finest hotels in the southern country, next to the Coronado Hotel. The celebration will last until this evening.

AN INNOVATION.

A Candy-stand Set Up in the City Hall Vestibule.

Visitors at the City Hall yesterday were surprised to find that a candy and cigar-stand had been set up in the handsome vestibule, and a general kick went up all along the line, almost every one who came in having something to say. It appears that some time ago a petition was presented to the Council asking for the privilege of setting up a newstand in the building. This petition was referred to the Finance Committee, and it was in turn referred to Clerk Teed, with power to act, and he granted the permission. It is stated that the place is given rent free, all that is asked being that it is kept respectably.

The members of the Finance Committee when asked about the arrangement, seemed disposed to throw the responsibility on Mr. Teed, and some expressed considerable surprise when reminded that the privilege was quite a valuable one, and that if the city's financial condition was such as to make the subletting of the City Hall a necessity, quite a considerable revenue could be derived from it.

There is no particular kick on the candy stand because it is one, but there is a very strong and decided sentiment against disfiguring the handsome entrance to the City Hall in this cheap manner, and if the privilege of setting up business rent free is to be given for the asking, it will not be long before the Council is loaded down with applications.

CATARRH,

Throat Diseases, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption, together with Diseases of the Eye, Ear and Heart successfully treated by M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M.D., M.C.P.S.O., By his Hot Air Medicated Inhalations and his Compound Oxygen Treatment.

Probably no system of practice ever employed has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

CATARRH.

Catarrh is often regarded by the patient as a cold in the head, and he often expresses his astonishment at his remarkable tendency to contract fresh cold. Indeed, he declares that he is scarcely free from one cold before he takes another, and he is always exceedingly careful; it is also a matter of surprise to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and throat.

At times many of the symptoms of catarrh seem to abate, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear off; but another class of symptoms soon appear and he learns to his horror that, instead of recovery from the disease, it is somewhat changed in its character and has extended to the throat. A sense of wearness is sometimes felt in reading, speaking or singing; hoarseness at times occurs, a sensation of dryness is felt in the throat, or it app ars that some foreign substance, as, for instance, a hair, obstructed the throat; there becomes a sense of lan nor and fatigue; the breath lessens on a little exertion, a short, hacking cough, a peculiar sound in clearing the throat, a feeling as though there was not room enough in the chest to breathe; these and other symptoms occur after the disease has made considerable progress. Then it is a time when consumption is about to begin its dreadful work. Up to this time the press of the disease may have been slow and the patient may, in expressing his confident hope that it will "wear off," declare that he has had the catarrh for years and has not seemed to become much worse, and trusts that he will "by and by" recover. But this delusion is the grand error which has peopled our cemeteries with consumptive forms as all forms of catarrh end finally in consumption.

Every case of catarrh is curable when properly treated. Eastern visitors and invalids should avail themselves of the opportunity of being cured before they return home.

Those who desire to consult me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally can write for list of questions and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. Address

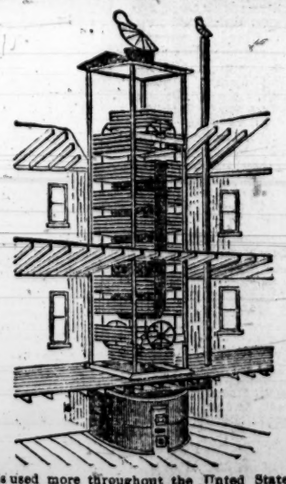
THE WILLIAMS FRUIT EVAPORATOR



Is used more throughout the United States than any machine made. It will evaporate more fruit for the amount of tray surface with less labor than any other machine. Therefore it is the most economical and cheapest. Hundreds of them are in use throughout the Northern States for apples, while in the peach district in the Southern States there are ten to one of any other machine made. They are pronounced by those who use them, and have used others in connection, to be the only practical machine. In 1888 seven were bought by different parties in Ventura county, this State, the same parties owning machines but gave preference to the Williams, as others have done before them. I have a carload of these machines on hand now, but as there are several parties about purchasing now, and there will be more orders than I have machines to fill, some will have to be filled at the factory. Therefore send in your orders early. Send for catalogue and price list to Five Per Cent. Interest Paid on Deposits.

The notice of the public is called to the fact that this bank only loans money on approved real-estate security; that it does not loan money to its stockholders, officers or clerks; that among its stockholders are some of the oldest and most responsible citizens of the community; that, under the State laws, the private estates of its stockholders are protected liable for the total indebtedness of the bank.

These facts, with care exercised in making loans, insure a safe depository for savings accounts. School teachers, clerks, mechanics, employes in factories and shops, laborers, etc., will find it convenient to make deposits in small amounts.

Financial agents for Eastern and San Francisco capital. Money to loan on ranches and city property. Bonds and mortgages bought. Remittances may be sent by draft or Wells-Fargo Express.
